Message from the Editors

Dear Readers,

We are delighted to bring out the first issue of the Jogamaya Devi College Newsletter, 'JDC Happening!'. We are grateful to our Principal, Dr. Srabani Sarkar for her constant support and encouragement in this venture.

The last two years have been fraught with uncertainty, despair and loss and we have been confronted with inconceivable difficulties and challenges. Yet we have been able to rise above it all and keep the indomitable JDC spirit alive.

In these difficult and challenging times we have also realised that the emotional and psychological well being of our students is of utmost importance. Our students are our strength and pride so we have tried to stand by their side and offer them emotional sustenance in the form of regular and patient hearing of their problems and periodic counselling sessions. This has gone a long way in forging a closer bond between us.

The last few years have taught us like never before that it is time to reach out and be compassionate, protect our environment and reduce waste. In response to this urgent need for more responsible living, we have started the Sister Nivedita Center for Community Outreach, installed rainwater harvesting units and solar panels in the administrative building, conducted camps and workshops on Value Orientation and Yoga training. We are also regularly conducting various Workshops and courses to enhance the students' employability skills, add-on courses, courses on foreign languages, spoken English and IT. The college you love so much is buzzing with activity and we would love you to be a part of it all.

Through this Newsletter we hope to stay connected with you and keep you abreast of all developments.

Stay Happy and Healthy!

Best wishes
